PETITIONING THE COURT

To incorporate the violation contained in this petition in future proceedings with the violations previously reported to the Court on February 6, 2025.

On March 26, 2025, Mr. Mendoza reported to the probation office following his release from inpatient treatment, and all conditions of supervised release were reviewed with him. Mr. Mendoza verbalized his understanding and signed a copy of his judgement and conditions memorializing his understanding of the conditions to which he was subject.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number	Nature of Noncompliance
-------------------------	--------------------------------

Special Condition # 16: You shall abstain from the use of illegal controlled substances, including marijuana, and shall submit to urinalysis testing, as directed by the supervising officer, but no more than six tests per month, in order to confirm continued abstinence from these substances.

Supporting Evidence: Mr. Mendoza is considered to be in violation of his term of supervised release by using a controlled substance, fentanyl, on or about May 28, 2025.

On May 28, 2025, Mr. Mendoza was instructed to report to the probation office for a random urinalysis. He reported as instructed and provided a valid sample that was sent to the laboratory for confirmation of alcohol and fentanyl. Mr. Mendoza denied use of either substance; however, the laboratory confirmed the sample was positive for fentanyl on June 3, 2025.

It is respectfully recommended that the Court incorporate the violation contained in this petition in all future proceedings with the violations previously reported to the Court.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
